

Comparing Japanese and American Culture W/ Hofstede

This table comparing between Japan and USA culture by the Hofstede six dimension study.

	Japan	USA
PD	Score:54	Score:40
	Details: both of these countries are democratic so they had low power distance.
IND	Score:64	Score:91
	Details: US have the highest score in individualism. Japan thinks more about the group, because they grow in society that care more about fit in the group
MAS	Score:92	Score:46
	Details: In Japan they had only two women are in the largest cooperation. In US, female and males are equal.
UAI	Score:92	Score: 46
	Details: Japan has a high UAI because of the nurtural disaster so they have future plans and they are aware of what will happen. In US its ok to take the risk and see what will happen.
LTO	Score:88	Score:26
	Details: Japanese cares more about the long-term orientation so they save more money for the future. But American doesn't save or think about the future as the Japanese, they care more about the short-term orientation.
IDV	Score:42	Score:68
	Details: Japanese are more likely interested in face saving and they don't want to be different that the members of their group. But American do what they want and they don't care about face saving.

Students Name / ID:

Maha Nasser H00293599

Khawla Mohamed H00293384